

Reuse Network

The best way to reduce waste is by reusing a product. Whenever possible, share tips or opportunities for reusing materials and reducing waste.

Solano Garbage Company has compiled this listing through various sources and does not present it as a complete directory of all organizations or companies, nor offer it as an endorsement to any of the organizations.

If you know of any other resources or know any corrections to this information please contact us.

DONATIONS

One person's trash is another person's treasure. When you donate unwanted items, you are not only reducing waste; you are also helping others. Local churches, community centers, thrift stores, and nonprofit organizations may accept a variety of donated items. Please donate your new or gently used items.
